

All the Love In Heaven

I'm dreaming of all the love in heaven

As I roll down this interstate

If my life should pass before me

My mind will be set on something great

Those angry wheels of commerce keep a grinding

People do their time and go away

I'm dreaming of all the love in heaven

I'm dreaming of a better day

I'm dreaming with both eyes open

I'm thinking outside my heart

I'm smiling in every direction

I'm trying to do my part

I'm dreaming of all the love in heaven

I try to keep it on my mind

Maybe that thought can transform me

And leave my heart peaceful and kind

Maybe that thought can cool my anger

And give me the right words to say

I'm dreaming of all the love in heaven

I'm dreaming of a better way

I'm dreaming of all the love in heaven

I hope someday to make it there

Surrounded by God's grace and goodness

Forever in his love to share

I'm dreaming of all the love in heaven

I'm dreaming of a better way
