

Eugene

The owl stayed out too late again
Hootin' around with all of his friends
The babies are screechin' for sump'n to eat
And he's peekin' on the snooze button with his beak

The beaver swears he's flat behind
He can't work enough dam overtime
And his partial plate is givin' him fits
But they don't offer dental in his benefits

(chorus)

And there goes Eugene the grizzelly bear
He ain't got no socks or underwear
Eugene says, "I do declare Woe and worry is every-where"
You gotta bear it, you gotta bear it
Just put a grin above your chin, and wear it
There's always one thing that's for sure
Somebody's troubles are bigger'n yours
Yeah, somebody's troubles are bigger'n yours

The squirrel is squackin' that he's in a rut
Bushed from workin' round a bunch of nuts
But he can't retire till he's old and gray
That 401 he's countin' on has got no K

The mole's diggin' through the job ads everyday
Can't get a decent grub on his take-home pay
He's gettin' all skinny and his eyes are a wreck
But there's ten dollars co-pay on a pair of specs

(repeat chorus)

The duck is feelin' kinda down these days
Had to tell his kids he never got that raise
It's gettin' awful hard just to feather a nest
The bills are a-growing and his credit's a mess

The rabbit was laggin' in his child support
The ex took his sorry cotton-tail to court
The judge said "Son, you gotta set things right"
Now he moonlights at IHOP ever night

(repeat chorus)
