

GONE GONE GONE

Too much truth and not enough beauty
Can make your day so long
I try to hold on, try to do my duty in the hope it will make me strong
But I'm just wore out and tired
This aging muck has got me mired
But I'm holding out for a feeling
A thought my mind can find appealing
Before I'm gone gone gone gone gone

Sitting hear waiting for it,
To finally appear
Right before my eyes
They say enlightenment
Can come fast or slowly
But it's always a surprise
Ain't it funny what we don't know
About the things that we do know
And I hope that when it finds me
That it's radiance don't blind me
For too long long long long long

Too much time and not enough happy
Can hurt you for a while
But when you wake up
You know you better get snappy
Better recognize a smile
'Cause no one else can learn your lesson
That's what I think
I'm only guessing
But everyday I'm waiting
Forever on anticipating
Until I'm gone gone gone gone gone
