SPIN

Things that go fast enough in tiny tiny circle
Somethings make big weather
But more often what really comes to pass
Is they just get screwed into the ground
Those that fly free enough to really get away
Seem to be birds of a feather
After they make their move and all fly away
Who'll be the last one around

Open up your mind
Unspin the screws
Open up your time
To dream the new

If you live in the past there ain't nothing you can do
To make your life much better
But if you look at what's right in front of you
You might be inspired what to do
If you cannot laugh you might as well cry
Try to make your dry eye wetter
When the tears fall and take the soot from your eyes
You might find a different point of view

Open up your heart
When true love calls
Make a brand new start
Tear down the walls

We'll sing the old song of love gone wrong
Then we'll sing the new song of love that's strong

Now is the time to truly celebrate
Sing away all the lies
Wake up to the joy and open up your eyes
Sing and dream a brand new song
Raise your voice in a way unheard
Blow the clouds from the sky
Accept the beauty and riches that are yours
And have been yours all along
Who'll be the last one to see the sun
Who'll be the last one to have some fun

Open up your mind
Unspin the screws
Open up your time
To dream the new
Open up your heart
When true love calls
Make a brand new start
Tear down the walls
