

GOOBERWOOD

Developer Bagwell from an old tobacco clan

Had some extra money and he looked out over the land

He thought he'd build a theme park put it in the hills

Where folks never had too much to say and he knows they never will

Howard said he liked it; it was good for the whole county

Barney made commercials and they put them on T.V.

Talk down at the barbershop said it would bring in jobs

But folks didn't like Mr. Bagwell because he was a snob

C They're gonna put concessions where the gas station use to be

H

O They're building a pie factory named after aunt Bea

R

U They named the park for the landowner that brought about this good

S

Gomer said he might but Goober said he would

Opie didn't like it so he took his pen in hand

He didn't like the image or what was happening to the land

He thought about his Pa and he thought about Aunt Bea

Then went down to the graveyard to pray that he might see

He stood around in the graveyard and looked out over the stones

A lot of good people with a lot of good sense but all were dead and gone

He thought he heard a voice; he hoped it might be God

Maybe it was just Aunt Bea from down beneath the sod

CHOURUS

Opie looked around him he saw many petty feuds

Folks that used to love one another and thought they always would

Every thing you want is cheaper down at Kerr McGee's

Convenience store and bait shop see yourself on their T.V.

Pa would know had to say it Aunt Bea would know what it was

That bothered him and woke his sleep and kept his nerve abuzz

Nature was disappearing the wildlife went away

But no one has time to hunt and fish so I guess it's all O.K.
