

I'M A DARLIN

words and music
R. Runyon

I'm the only one in this bunch with enough money to sue someone
So you better do just like I say or I'll get my old shotgun
I'm the one who knows what's what and I'm the one who says
I'm the one who calls the shots I'm not the one who's dead
Cause I'm a darlin' don't you know
I'm a darlin' I let it show
It's the inbred sensibility of a man in lust for gold
It's the lack of imagination of one who's done just as he's told
Now I'm the one who's telling and you're the one who's told
I'm not one for bluffing my heart is dead and cold
Cause I'm a darlin' don't you know
I'm a darlin' I let it show
I can blow all through your house and give your soul a freeze
I can be so hot and wet I'll bring you to your knees
Cause I'm a darlin'
These hills are disappearing and I won't be here long
I'm going to leave my daughter more than just a song
I'm going to leave her money I don't care if it's mine or yours
I'm a thunderhead in action and when I rains I pours
Cause I'm a darlin' don't you know
I'm a darlin' I let it show
I'll wash all through your dwelling and leave you to the sky
If you feel like eating just have some humble pie
Cause I'm a darlin'
I've known you all my life I don't mind losing you now
I only wish there was a way I could trade you for a cow
You're nothing to me you can't be bought or sold
I've got things to do before I get old
Cause I'm a darlin' don't you know
I'm a darlin' I let it show
