

Over the Edge and back Again

It's a long walk to the heart

It's a hard trip to even start

It's a hard place to leave

If your lucky to receive

The chance to arrive

Where feelings survive

Quick on your feet

Or quick to defeat

Riding the wind

No pride to defend

Over the edge and back again

Over the edge and back again

It's a hard bounce from below

It's a hard place to even go

It's a short climb from the stars

To the place we really are

The will to be

The eyes to see

Pie in the sky or brown on the ground

Riding so high and falling so down

Over the edge and bouncing around
