

DARK POET

words and music
R. Runyon

Em7 A Em7 A
I'm a dark poet I don't care who knows it I'm a dark poet stay away from me
Em7 A Em7 A
Everywhere I go there's spirits talking to me I've been to the mountain I've been down to the sea
C D C D
You see me in your nightmares occasionally I'm easy to spot I'm singing dweedly de
C D C D
A shooby doo here and a ditty bop there it's so disconcerting that it really ain't fair
Em7 A Em7 A
I'm a dark poet
Em7 A Em7 A
I see through the background I see right to the core I could tell you the truth but you'd just get sore
Em7 A Em7 A
So I don't say nothing when I'm talking to you 'cause it's the only way for our love to stay true
C D C D
You see me in the mall and you know your in trouble I'm cruising along in my elusive bubble
C D C D
I don't push no one they just all stay away they don't fell guilty 'cause I love it that way
Em7 A Em7 A
I'm a dark poet
Em7 A Em7 A
I'm a needle in your easy chair a fly in your soup there really is no hight to which I will not stoop
Em7 A Em7 A
I'm a mirror in a hurricane a coming at you, you better look quick before it all comes true
C D C D
I can see your future 'cause it's all in your past neither one is real so fly your flag at half mast
C D C D
You think you've got it covered but the sheet blew away you know you're gonna die so have a nice day
Em7 A Em7 A
I'm a dark poet
C D C D
You see me in your nightmares occasionally I'm easy to spot I'm singing tweedly dee
C D C D
A shooby doo here and a ditty bop there it's so disconcerting that it really ain't fair
Em7
I'm a dark poet