

Elvis Johnson

words and music G. Lucass    music R. Runyon

C

Way back in Kentucky

F

Underneath a big blue moon

C

Am7

In a mobile home called Graceland

D7

G

There in the jungle room

C

Behind a pair of mirror shades

F

In a sequin leisure suit

C

With a belt of snow-white leatherette

C

To match his zip-up boots

F

He grabs the keys to "Teddy Bear"

C

His custom Peterbilt

Am7

D7

With a golden hound dog on the hood

G

And rhinestones 'round the wheels

(Chorus)

C

Elvis Johnson

F

C

Got a big ol' diamond ring

Am7

Elvis Johnson

D7

G

He cannot dance or sing

C

He can play the guitar a little bit

F

And do that thing with his upper lip

C

Am7

Elvis Johnson

D7            G7    C
He looks just like the king

C
He pulled over in Missouri
          F            C
For some pie and diesel fuel

                                  Am7
The waitress punched the jukebox

D7            G
G-7, Don't Be Cruel

C
Later, back at her place

          F
Just outside Poplar Bluff

                                  C
She gave him a 'nanner sandwich

          G            C
And a hunk of burnin' love

          F
They drove to Memphis to be wed

          C
But she wouldn't change her name

          Am7        D7
He kept callin' her Priscilla

          G
But his efforts were in vain

(Repeat Chorus)

C
They honeymooned in Vegas

          F
To celebrate their vows

          C            Am7
But with all the other Elvi there

          D7            G
He lost her in the crowd

C
Now his mind is all shook up

F
And the sky is cold and gray

C
It's lonely back in Pikeville

G C
In that cold Kentucky rain
F
Don't say nothin' 'bout the waitress
C
You might get karate choppe
Am7 D7
And don't bad-mouth his namesake
G
The eternal king of rock

(Repeat Chorus)
