

HAPPY TO BE LIVING

words and music
R.Runyon

Am                    C                                    Am                                    G    Em    Am
Thank you Lord for giving of me trees and things that set me free because I'm happy to be living
Am                    C                                    Am                                    G    Em    Am
Water rippling in a stream things are clearer than they've ever been and I'm happy to be living

C    F                    C    Em    D    F    C    Em    D
H    Thank you Lord for thinking of me I'm about as happy as I can be O    F                    C    Em    D                    G    Em    Am
R    Things are getting better it's plain to see and I'm happy to be living
U

Am                    C                                    Am                                    G    Em    Am
Water's pure where it begins flow through my life and never end because I'm happy to be living
Am                    C                                    Am                                    G    Em    Am
Water wash me from my sin and bubble love from deep within because I'm happy to be living

CHORUS

Am                    C                                    Am                                    G    Em    Am
Stay with me wherever I go stay with me and help me to know I can be happy to be living
Am                    C                                    Am                                    G    Em    Am
Water rippling in a stream things are clearer than they have ever been and I'm happy to be living

CHORUS

I play this song using these chord forms with a capo in a different key.
Please find the key that suites your voice if you plan to sing it.
