

GOOBERWOOD

Words and Music R. Runyon

Em C D G
Developer Bagwell from an old tobacco clan
Em C D Em
Had some extra money and he looked out over the land
Em C D G
He thought he'd build a theme park put it in the hills
Em C D Em
Where folks never had too much to say and he knows they never will
Em C D G
Howard said he liked it; it was good for the whole county
Em C D Em
Barney made commercials and they put them on T.V.
Em C D G
Talk down at the barbershop said it would bring in jobs
Em C D Em
But folks didn't like Mr. Bagwell because he was a snob
C G D Em
C They're gonna put concessions where the gas station use to be
H C G D Em
O They're building a pie factory named after aunt Bea
R C G D Em
U They named the park for the landowner that brought about this good
S C D Em
Gomer said he might but Goober said he would

Em C D G
Opie didn't like it so he took his pen in hand
Em C Em
He didn't like the image or what was happening to the land
Em C D G
He thought about his Pa and he thought about Aunt Bea
Em C D Em
Then went down to the graveyard to pray that he might see
Em C D G
He stood around in the graveyard and looked out over the stones
Em C D Em
A lot of good people with a lot of good sense but all were dead and gone

Em C D G
He thought he heard a voice; he hoped it might be God
Em C D Em
Maybe it was just Aunt Bea from down beneath the sod

CHOURUS

Em C D G
Opie looked around him he saw many petty feuds
Em C D Em
Folks that used to love one another and thought they always would
Em C D G
Every thing you want is cheaper down at Kerr McGee's
Em C D Em
Convenience store and bait shop see yourself on their T.V.
Em C D G
Pa would know had to say it Aunt Bea would know what it was
Em C D Em
That bothered him and woke his sleep and kept his nerve abuzz
Em C D G
Nature was disappearing the wildlife went away
Em C D Em
But no one has time to hunt and fish so I guess it's all O.K.
